Dear Naked Voice Training Applicant

We are delighted that you wish to attend the 20-25 March 2011 Naked Voice Training – Awakening Through Sound.

Introduction to the Naked Voice Training

1) Application Requirements - Send the following to arrive at the Naked Voice office no later than 1 March 2011.

- a) CD demo: Send us a CD or tape of 3 - 6 pieces, either songs, chants, improvisations or poems. NB The quality of recording does not have to be professional standard.
- b) Vocal Self Portrait: Send us a typed self-portrait of your own relationship with your voice, inner/outer, spoken/sung, as you have experienced it over the course of your life, from childhood through adolescence and adulthood. You are entirely free as to the style in which you write this e.g. poetic, prose, documentary, or a combination of these. Enjoy the process. You will find it challenging but rewarding.
- c) Statement of Intent for the Training: This will indicate to us the nature of your commitment to the Naked Voice practices and principles, what inspires you to attend this training, which aspects of the work have particular resonance for you, e.g. energy movement, the therapeutic skills, witness work and silence, the singing field concept. If you are a facilitator trainee please update us as to how many trainings you have attended (and if appropriate) your experience so far of using the Naked Voice work in the world.
- d) Silent Retreat: Take time out before the Training starts, for 2 - 5 days, to be entirely silent, without any external stimulus if possible (see Guidance Notes below). Silence is the source of all sound.
- e) Photograph: Please send in a facial photograph of yourself to assist us in our administration records (e-mail is fine).
- f) Contract of Commitment – see page 4

2) Booking Requirements and Options

- a) Your £100 non-refundable deposit for the Naked Voice Training confirms your booking on the training.
- b) Full payment - If you prefer you can send the full payment of £845 or £785 (earlybird price) before 1 September 2010.
- c) Standing Order - In order to help you and us to provide our treasured venue with their required financial deposits over the following months, prior to training, we are asking you to consider paying The Naked Voice by instalments, as indicated below. This approach also enables you to pace your finances effortlessly, and to satisfactorily complete payment before the course begins. Once we have received your £100 deposit and your completed Contract, Tim will send you The Naked Voice bank details. Then, all you have to do is set up a Standing Order into the Naked Voice account, and forget about it.

Guidance for your Silent Retreat

The focus of this two day retreat is to become inwardly calm and to really enjoy being alone with yourself. You are encouraged to spend this retreat on your own, however, please ensure that if you are accompanied by a friend, that you agree not to speak from the beginning to the end. If it is valuable for you at the beginning of the day and at the end before sleeping, take half an hour to sound the 'Aum'. If you don't have a drone instrument, you may consider using the drone 'In A' CD.

It is okay to make a journal of the experience, but I advise you not to read books, answer the telephone or attend to any daily administrative business (if you are at home). Make sure that you have all provisions on board before you begin and kindly stay at base apart from going on nourishing walks if that is possible, or any other healing exercise such as practising Masashi's movements.

Ask yourself at the beginning of the day, "How effortless can I be today?" and at the end of the day "How effortless was my day?" Don't judge what happened, just accept and re-affirm your commitment to witnessing your self without judgement. Meditation on the breath is also an invaluable means of centering down.

Please let Tim Chalice the office know when your silent retreat dates are, so we can be thinking of you and supporting you from afar.
